

1.

By the age of 5, 32.8% of children in Hull have already
experienced
tooth decay

2.

Fluoridation reduces
dental decay by 52% in the most
deprive areas.

3.

Fluoridation
reduces tooth
decay in people
aged 3 to 75.

4.

Fluoridation and
fluoride toothpastes
work together.

5.

Children in
socially deprived
areas stand to
benefit most of all
from fluoridation.

6.

In England, around 330,000 people
are supplied with
already naturally
occurring fluoride
water at the optimal
level for oral health.

7.

45%

Fluoridation reduced
admissions to hospital
for dental extractions
by 45% in the least
deprived areas.

8.

There is no evidence
of harm to health
in fluoridated areas

9.

Fluoridation reduces
admissions to hospital
for dental extractions
by 68% in the
most deprived areas.

10.

36%

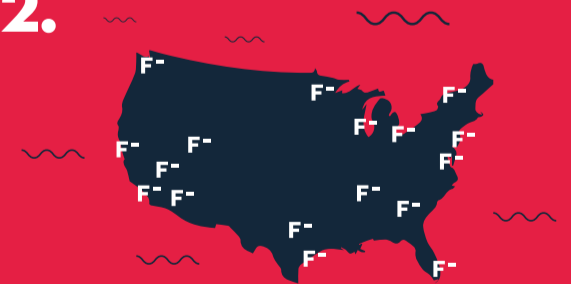

Fluoridated Sandwell
has 36% less
decay than Hull.

11.

Around 390 million
people in 25 countries
are supplied with
intentionally
fluoridated water.

12.

45 of the largest
cities in the USA
are fluoridated

References

1. Survey 2017
2. PHE 2018

7. PHE 2018
9. PHE 2018

10. Survey 2017
12. ADA, 2016